

ATTENTION ANTHROPOLOGY MAJORS!!

Are you interested in going to graduate school in Anthropology?

You should already know that UCI offers many resources to help you through the application process. You can always go to the Undergraduate Counseling Office, The Social Science Resource Center, and The Career Center. But isn't there more to know?

How can you find out what it's really like to be a graduate student?

It turns out that our very own UCI graduate students in Anthropology wish they would have known a few things before they made this big decision, and they want to pass on their wisdom!

On February 16th from 5-7pm in SSPB 1208, you are invited to attend,

“What I Wish I Knew Before Applying to Graduate School,”

sponsored by The Department of Anthropology and The School of Social Sciences Counseling Office. Current PhD. seeking students will speak on a variety of topics, from their lifestyle to money matters to their own research.

This program is open to all that are interested. Refreshments will be served, and you will have plenty of time to ask questions and make connections!
